

Faces in the Crowd

Stadford Brown

WASHINGTON, D.C. > Football

Brown, a redshirt freshman quarterback at North Carolina Central University, passed for 206 yards and a touchdown in his first collegiate start to lead the Eagles to a 20-0 win over Albany (Ga.) State. He has completed 38 passes for 690 yards and thrown six touchdowns for his 3-0 team this season.

Lauren Danner

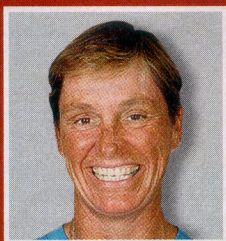

KAUKAUNA, WIS. > Softball

Lauren, an eighth-grader at Riverview Middle School and a righthanded pitcher for the Kaukauna Ghosts, had seven straight wins, including 7-1 and 8-4 victories over the previously unbeaten Fort Wayne (Ind.) Fire, to win the National Softball Association's Class B 12-and-under Super World Series in Peoria, Ill.

Kelly Winterbottom

SAN MATEO, CALIF. > Diving

Winterbottom, 46, a diving instructor at Highlands Recreation Center and a physical-education teacher at Bowditch Middle School, won the women's (45-49 age group) three-meter springboard event with a world-record score of 256.40 at the FINA World Master's Diving Championships at Stanford University.

Leone Cruz

ROUND ROCK, TEXAS > Soccer

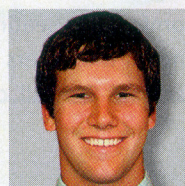

Cruz, a freshman defender at SMU, scored both game-winning goals in a pair of 1-0 victories over Wisconsin and Wisconsin-Milwaukee to give the Mustangs the Golden Hurricane Classic title. He was named MVP of his first collegiate tournament and was Soccer America men's player of the week.

Katie Ueberroth

STEPHENS, PA. > Field Hockey

Ueberroth, a freshman midfielder at Old Dominion, came off the bench and scored the final goal in a 3-1 win over Penn State, then followed that performance with a goal and an assist in the Lady Monarchs' 6-1 victory over Ohio. She was named the Colonial Athletic Association rookie of the week.

Will Breslin

DAYTONA BEACH > Baseball

Breslin, a senior first baseman at Belmont Abbey College, was the most valuable player for the Orlando Shockers of the Florida Collegiate Summer Baseball League. He had a .319 batting average, with 14 runs scored and 19 RBIs. Defensively he made 139 putouts and had a .993 fielding percentage.