MEDIA SUPPLEMENT

2011-12 SEASON OUTLOOK

The two-time defending CAA Champion Monarchs, winners of a school record 173 games the last seven seasons, return six lettermen which include two starters from last year's CAA Championship team that won 27 games and reached the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row.

"I am as invigorated by this challenge as much as ever. Over the years, we have handled the growing pains, shook hands and went forward. I believe this year's team will have as much growth and improvement from fall to spring as any I have ever been around. That is quite a statement given history. To put it into perspective, you need to recognize that every player on our team will be in a different role, Kent Bazemore included. They will need to experience those roles, fit those roles together and put them to use in game competition. We will be adding ingredients to our recipe as we go. When you mix it all together, we will be like a plant that is coming out of the ground and is nurtured and I believe will blossom at the right time." - ODU head coach Blaine Taylor

Under the direction of head coach Blaine Taylor, ODU has appeared in national post-season play seven straight years, including four NCAA tournaments. ODU also reached the semifinals of the 2006 NIT and won the 2009 Collegeinsider.com post-season championship.

The 27 wins are the second most in ODU basketball history behind only the 28 wins in the 2005 season, all under Taylor, the school's winningest men's basketball coach. Taylor is 215-110 as he enters his 11th season at ODU. He won his 200th game at ODU with a 69-65 win over George Mason in the Constant Center. The 173 wins the past seven years is the best among Virginia's Division I schools at .721 percent. ODU has also won more CAA titles (5) than any current league member.

Last year, the Monarchs compiled a 27-7 record, won the CAA tournament championship, then advanced to their second straight NCAA tournament as a number nine seed, their highest since 1986. The Monarchs lost a heartbreaker at the buzzer to two-time NCAA Tournament finalist Butler, 60-58 in Washington, DC.

As was the case last year, ODU ranked among the nation's best in three team and three individual categories. The Monarchs were national champions in rebound margin (+11.7) after ranking third in 2010. ODU was third nationally in scoring defense (58.4) after finishing sixth last year and ranked 36th (.404) nationally in field goal percentage defense.

ODU lost four lettermen, led by 6-9 All-CAA center and Tourament MVP and SI.com honorable mention All-American, Frank Hassell. Hassell led the team in scoring at 15.1, shot .560 from the field, and had 9.4 rebounds per game. He was also named first team All-CAA, All-State, NABC District 10, and to the CAA and Collegeinsider.com national All-Defensive squads.

Also gone are 6-5, forward Ben Finney (9.2 ppg/ 6.3 prg), 6-0 guard Darius James (7.0 ppg/3.0 apg), and 6-8 forward Keyon Carter (7.3 ppg/4.1 rpg). Finney is now ODU's all-time leader in career games played with 139, followed by Hassell and James at 138.

Heading ODU's returnees are Kent Bazemore (6-5, Sr., 12.3 ppg/ 5.1 rpg), who was second team All-CAA, CAA Defensive Player of the Year, the CAA's steal leader (2.2) and Collegeinsider.com National Defensive Player of the Year; Chris Cooper (6-9, Sr. 5.0 ppg/ 5.5 rpg.); and Trian Iliadis (6-3, Sr. 6.0 ppg/ 1.4 rpg.), the CAA Scholar Athlete of the Year.

The Monarchs will also be counting heavily on Marquel De Lancey (6-0, Sr., G, 1.9 ppg.), red-shirt junior Nick Wright (6-8, C., 1.3 ppg.), 7-0 red-shirt sophomore Anton Larsen (1.3 ppg) as well as red-shirt freshmen Dimitri Batten (6-3,G) and Richard Ross (6-7, F).

Taylor and his staff brought in two outstanding newcomers in 6-2 guard Breon Key, an All-Peninsula District selection from nearby Phoebus High School in Hampton, VA and 6-8 forward Jason Pimentel, the Ocala County Player of the Year from Montverde Academy in Ocala, FL. ODU will also have 6-4 sophomore guard Donte Hill, the Tidewater Conference Player of the Year at nearby Norfolk Collegiate, who transferred from Clemson. Also added to the team is Nayquann Mitchell, a 6-7 1/5 forward from Jamaica, NY and Lon Morris junior college in Jacksonville, TX.

The Monarchs will play another very strong non-conference schedule that will include seven NCAA teams from a year, and two NCAA natonal semi-finalists. ODU will have home games with nationally ranked Missouri along with Northern Iowa, Vermont and East Carolina.

"I have had many people, somewhat in gest and somewhat seriously say, are you crazy? What they are alluding to is the fact we have had the winningest classes in the history of our school graduate in 2008, 2010, and 2011. We traditionally pursue a strong, challenging, but strategic schedule every year. This team will have a saying of: we have our work cut out for us, but we are cut out for the work. What we experience in working our way through November and December will set the stage for the fruits of our labors in January, February and beyond." –Blaine Taylor.

ODU will compete in Hall of Fame Tip-off Tournament with two home games and then play two games at the Mohegan Sun Arena against South Florida, NCAA semifinalist Kentucky and Penn State. The Monarchs will also travel to Richmond, who won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the round of 16. The Monarchs will again have 18 games in the CAA, a league that had three NCAA teams and has had two Final Four squads in the last six years.

"It seems as though it's a national competition to compare leagues. I think if you analyze the last number of years, the CAA has really come of age. A good history has led to a strong as ever present with a bright future. We have a national reputation with involvement in post season and post season performance. I have often said over the years, if you can climb the standings in the CAA you can play most anybody in this country. We have proven that, and many others in our league have also The league race has virtually come down to the last few weeks with all sorts of interest. And our tournament has become a can't miss experience that rivals any tournament around." - Blaine Taylor.

ASSOCIATE COACH JIM CORRIGAN

Last College: Duke 1980
Position: Associate Coach
Experience: 17 yrs

The consistent rise of the Monarch program has been due in large part to the tireless efforts of veteran Jim Corrigan who just completed his 17th year on the Monarchs staff and his 23nd overall on the collegiate level.

Fox Sports Jeff Goodman recently named Corrigan as the top assistant in the Colonial Athletic Association and RecruitDirt.com ranked him in their top five.

Jim is involved in every aspect of the Monarch program including recruiting, scouting, scheduling, player development, and academic monitoring of the team members. In all, his extensive experience has helped lead the Monarchs to five straight post season tournaments. Collegeinsider.com rated Corrigan as one of the five top Mid-Major Assistant Coaches in the nation.

During his tenure, Corrigan has helped the Monarchs win three CAA championships, make four trips to the NCAA Tournament as well as two NIT tournament appearances, and a CBI post season appearance. Last year, the Monarchs captured the inaugural College Basketball Insider.com title. The 2006 Monarchs reached the NIT semi-finals with a trip to Madison Square Garden. In the last five years, ODU has won more games than (119) any Virginia Division I program.

Under Corrigan's leadership 17 Monarchs have been named All-Conference, two were Rookies of the Year, three players of the year, two defensive players of the year and ten to the CAA All-Defensive squad. Nine freshman were named to the CAA All-Rookie team.

Corrigan put together a schedule that allowed Old Dominion to receive an at-large bid to the 2007 NCAA Tournament for the first time in 21 years.

Corrigan has an extensive international recruiting experience, with players from Australia, Lithuania, The Ivory Coast, Canada, Finland and Denmark. Four of those student athletes earned All-Conference honors and one was the CAA Player of the Year and Tournament MVP.

The student athletes he has recruited have also been outstanding in the classroom as two were named CAA Scholar Athletes of the Year.

Jim began his coaching career at Northern High School in Durham, NC., where he served as an assistant for two years under head coach Kevin Billerman. From there he moved to his alma mater, Bishop McGuinness High School in Winston-Salem, NC. After one season as the junior varsity and varsity assistant, Jim was elevated to head coach.

During his four years as head coach at McGuinness, he achieved several milestones. His teams compiled a record of 90-42, and reached the North Carolina State Finals each of the last three years he was the head coach, culminating in the 1987 state championship. During that run, McGuinness twice set school records for wins in a season with 26 in 1984-85, and 27 in 1985-86. Twice his teams were invited to the prestigious Alhambra Invitational Tournament, and finished with a 77-25 record those last three seasons.

Corrigan was named Coach of the Year in the conference and on the state level in North Carolina three times. From there, Jim moved to William and Mary where he was an assistant coach from 1987-94.

In high school, Jim was named All-City and All-County as a senior at McGuinness and led the city in scoring at 26 points per game. He turned down numerous scholarships to attend Duke University where he walked on to the team and earned a scholarship under head coach Bill Foster. While at Duke, the Blue Devils won two Atlantic Coast Tournament championships and played in three NCAA tournaments, including the 1978 A Final Four.

As a senior at Duke, the Blue Devils were ranked number one in the country as well as the number one amateur team in the world. That year, Corrigan received the Ted Mann award as the non-starter who contributed the most to team morale. Duke reached the NCAA quarterfinals.

Jim is currently president of the assistant coaches committee of the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Jim and his wife Sonja, have a daughter, Keenan (22), a graduate of Duke, and sons Cole (18), a freshman at ODU, and Drew (16). Jim graduated from Duke in 1980 with a degree in management science.

TAYLOR ON BAZEMORE: "Kent's career personifies a growth in overcoming obstacles that lay in ones path. The red-shirt year was of great benefit to enhance his preparation and progress. He has had steady growth both on and off the court and in the classroom. He is currently overcoming a physical injury. I think the final result will be a more mature, a more in tuned and passionate person, pursuing the upcoming season. We will turn the negative into a positive with the fact that others will have to bring home the bacon, and then we will have Kent's assistance in doing so at some point. Kent , obviously is seen as a guy who makes eye opening plays defensively and around the basket. My hope is that Kent continues to be a very well rounded player, and could potentially have occasions where triple double performances could personify his performance."

Old Dominion University has enjoyed an impressive basketball tradition. Since fielding its first team in 1930, Old Dominion has won 1,218 games in 81 years, a winning percentage of .591.

Founded in 1930 as the Norfolk Division of the College of William and Mary, the institution gained independence in 1962 and became Old Dominion College. In 1969, University status was granted and the name was changed to Old Dominion University.

Sonny Allen was named head coach at Old Dominion in 1965, following athletic director Bud Metheny's outstanding career. In ten years, Allen led the Monarchs to 181 wins, and a second place national finish at the 1970 NCAA Division II championships. In 1975 his Monarchs took the ultimate prize with the National Championship.

Paul Webb took control in 1975-76 and led the Monarchs to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division II nationals. Webb successfully guided the Old Dominion program to one of the nation's premier Division I basketball programs. In ten seasons, Webb won 196 victories and took the Big Blue to nine national post-season tournaments.

In 1985, the reigns were turned over to Tom Young and he guided the Monarchs to a 23-8 mark in 1986 and an NCAA bid. The Monarchs advanced to the second round for the first time ever. In 1987-88, Old Dominion was 18-12 and earned a NIT bid. In 1991-92, former captain Oliver Purnell returned to his alma mater and led Old Dominion to the CAA title and a trip to the NCAA. In 1993 and 1994 the Monarchs advanced to the second round of the NIT. Jeff Capel took over in 1994-95 and guided the Monarchs to the second round of the NCAA after a stunning victory over third seed Villanova, 89-81 in triple overtime. Capel again guided Old Dominion to a CAA title and NCAA Tournament play in 1997.

In April of 2001, Blaine Taylor became the Monarchs fifth Division I head coach. He guided ODU to the school's most wins in a single season (28) in 2004-05, winning the CAA crown and advancing to the NCAA tournament. The following year, ODU won another 24 games and reached the semi-finals of the NIT at Madison Square Garden.

The 2007 Monarchs won another 24 games and advanced to the NCAA tournament as an at-large team. In 2008, ODU reached the quarterfinals of the inaugural College Basketball Invitational (CBI).

In 2008-09 the Monarchs won the championship of the inaugural College Insider.com tournament with a 25-10 record.

In 2009-10, ODU captured its fifth CAA title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament after beating sixth seeded Notre Dame, 51-50.

In 2010-11, ODU won its second straight CAA crown and lost at the buzzer to Butler in the NCAA Tournament.

The Monarchs have been selected for post-season play 20 times since moving up to Division I in 1976-77, eight by the NCAA and ten by the NIT. Twenty-two players have been accorded All-American honors since 1958, including first team selections Wilson Washington (1975-76), Joel Copeland (1973-74) and Dave Twardzik (1972-73).
