OLD DOMINION HEAD COACH KAREN BAREFOOT

In August of 2013, Old Dominion University athletic director Dr. Wood Selig announced that Karen Barefoot received a new five-year contract that will extend through the 2017-18 season.

"Karen has quickly illustrated in her first two years as our head women's basketball coach that she possesses the drive, professional contacts, teaching ability, and knowledge to direct our program to national prominence. This is a natural second contract for Karen who reflects enhanced performance incentives while also restoring her to an employment term of five years as we transition to C-USA," says Selig.

In her 18-year coaching career, Karen Barefoot has been a part of 15 winning seasons and an overall coaching record of 317-199. She is a proven winner that has made history in resurrecting programs, winning championships and producing success in the classroom and in the community. She became one of the youngest head coaches at the age of 22 and her passion for the game of basketball is contagious.

In just 15 years as a head coach, Karen Barefoot has compiled 12 winning seasons and has won two National Coach of the Year awards.

Just as she expects out of her players, Barefoot is an extremely active member of the community, being involved in the Lady Monarchs Hoops for the Cure, Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, Coaches vs. Cancer, "Barefootin' Night" to support Samaritan's Feet and visiting countless schools and starting the first ever ODU "Education Day" game, just to name a few.

She is also seen in the community as one of the top speakers in the Hampton Roads area, speaking for organizations, An Achievable Dream, school graduations and heavily involved in the Lady Monarchs annual golf tournament, which raised more than $45,000 in 2012.

In year two, Barefoot guided ODU to a 9-3 start in non-conference action which was the best start since the 1998-99 season for the Lady Monarchs. The team tallied 19 wins, an eight-win turnaround from the 2011-12 season, which was tied for 14th best nationally and earned a spot in the WNIT. Old Dominion finished in fourth place in the CAA and defeated eventual WNIT champion Drexel at home while compiling a 12-5 overall record at the Ted. Earning All-CAA Second Team honors was Shae Kelley, who was the only underclassmen to be named to any of the three teams. Jackie Cook became the 30th player in ODU history to score 1,000 points and was named All-CAA Academic First Team honors while Ashley Betz-White was honorable mention. Buchan also earned CoSIDA First-Team All-Academic for the second consecutive year.

In her first season at Old Dominion, Barefoot raised the bar in the community, as the Lady Monarchs participated in more than 10 activities off the court. On the court, Barefoot guided Ashley Betz-White to CAA Rookie of the Year honors and helped Betz-White and Myeisha Hall earn All-Rookie honors. Senior Tia Lewis was named to the All-CAA squad, All State and earned a tryout with the WNBA's Washington Mystics while Mairi Buchan was named First-Team All-Academic and CoSIDA First-Team All-Academic.

Barefoot made her presence known on the recruiting trail at Old Dominion, as she signed the Virginian-Pilot Player of the Year, Galaisha Goodhope, and the Peninsula District and Daily Press Player of the Year, LaQuanda Younger. Also coming in during the 2012-13 season was Miami, (Fla.) transfer Stephanie Gardner, who in 2010-11, helped the Hurricanes to their first Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular-season championship as well as junior college All-American Shae Kelley and earned as Ms. Colorado Basketball honors coming out of high school.

The Lady Monarchs brought in a top-45 nationally ranked recruiting class and the No. 1 class in the CAA for the 2012-13 season.

Barefoot, who hails from Newport News, Va. (Menchville High School), has a career head coaching record of 240-176, resulting in 12 winning seasons. Aside from Elon, Barefoot has also held the head coaching position at Division II Lenoir Rhyne University and at the Apprentice School.

Barefoot helped Elon reach new heights in 2010-11, as the Phoenix finished the season with a 20-13 record - the program's best season at the Division I level and only the fifth team in program history to reach the 20-win plateau. The Phoenix 11 home victories marked the most home wins in a single season in the Division I era, while the team's postseason appearance in the Women's Basketball Invitational was the first since joining Division I. Elon recorded its 20th win of the season in the WBI. Barefoot also led Elon to 12 victories in SoCon play, doubling their 2009-10 total and tying the 2003-04 squad for the most SoCon wins in a season.

Prior to coming to Elon, Barefoot was an assistant coach at Old Dominion, where the team compiled a 77-23 record, won three CAA Championships, and was a perennial top-25 program. In 2007-08, ODU advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, defeating 12th-seeded Liberty University and fourth-seeded Virginia, which to this day is one of the most memorable games in the history of the Ted Constant Convocation Center. The Lady Monarchs completed 2007-08 with a 31-5 record. Along with its 17th consecutive Colonial Athletic Association crown, ODU earned a ranking as high as 11th in the nation.

Barefoot originally came to Old Dominion after serving as the head coach at Division II Lenoir-Rhyne from 2001-2005. While at the NCAA Division II school, Barefoot captured the first South Atlantic Conference regular season title in school history in 2003-04 en route to claiming league Coach of the Year honors. Under her leadership, the team also grabbed the first SAC tournament championship in school history in 2002-03. That year, the team finished the season ranked eighth in the region following its first-ever trip to the NCAA Division II National Tournament. In her first year at Lenoir-Rhyne, she led the program to its best record in 15 years, going 19-9. Barefoot coached Lenoir-Rhyne's first NCAA First Team All-American, South Atlantic Player of the Year and SAC Tournament Most Valuable Player. Additionally, under her guidance the Bears had four student-athletes earn All-SAC honors and 13 student-athletes named to the SAC Commissioner's honor roll.

Prior to her stint at Lenoir-Rhyne, Barefoot spent six winning seasons at the Apprentice School after helping to initiate and develop the first-ever female athletic program in the 75-year history of the school. She started the program at the age of 22, becoming the youngest head coach in the country. A two-time NSCAA National Coach of the Year (1999 & 2001), she compiled a 102-41 mark and captured the 2001 NSCAA National Championship. Barefoot was also given the Peninsula Sports Club Special Achievement Award for winning a national championship. Under Barefoot, the Builders had seven NSCAA All-Americans and four Academic All-Americans. All-Americans Keisha Joseph and Taffey Thomas both played professionally in Finland. Joseph now serves as the Athletic Director at the Apprentice School.

Barefoot served one year building Cape Henry's high school program while starting up the Apprentice School.

As a former student-athlete at Christopher Newport, Barefoot still holds the recognition of being the first player in NCAA history, male or female, to score over 2,000 points and accumulate 1,000 assists during her career. Barefoot was the only player to achieve this height until Gonzaga's Courtney Vandersloot (who now plays for WNBA's Chicago Sky) accomplished the feat on March 21, 2011. For four consecutive seasons, Barefoot led the nation in assists and is CNU's all-time leader in assists and steals, while ranking second in scoring. She is the only player in any division to lead a statistical category all four years. She was a four-time team MVP and team captain and was also the Peninsula Sports Club's Female Athlete of the Year four straight years. Barefoot was also invited to the free-agent camp with the Utah Stars in their inaugural season.

A three-time Kodak/WBCA All-American, she has been inducted into the USA South Hall of Fame, the CNU Athletic Hall of Fame and had her college jersey (No. 10) retired. Barefoot was just recently honored during CNU's 50th anniversary celebration as one of the school's Top 50 Most Distinguished Alumni.

Early in the second half Kelley became just the fifth Lady Monarch to score 1,000 career points in just her first two seasons at ODU.

Starting for just the third time this season, Michelle Brandao tied her career-high with eight points and dished out a career-best nine assists to help lead the way for ODU. All eight of Brandao's points came in the first half.

With the win, ODU will play at Auburn on Monday night, Mar. 24 at 7 p.m. EST.

Kelley Joins Elite Company, Lady Monarchs Defeat Navy 68-60 in WNIT

NORFOLK, Va. – Shae Kelley scored a game-high 22 points including 16 in the second half as the Old Dominion Lady Monarchs defeated Navy 68-60 Thursday night at the Ted Constant Convocation Center in the first round of the WNIT.

Early in the second half Kelley became just the fifth Lady Monarch to score 1,000 career points in just her first two seasons at ODU.

Starting for just the third time this season, Michelle Brandao tied her career-high with eight points and dished out a career-best nine assists to help lead the way for ODU. All eight of Brandao's points came in the first half.

With the win, ODU will play at Auburn on Monday night, Mar. 24 at 7 p.m. EST.

Midway through the second half Navy went on a 10-0 run to take a lead but Kelley responded by scoring ODU's next 11 consecutive points as ODU came back to take a 60-56 lead. Chelisa Painter added a lay-in to make the score 62-56 to break Kelley's streak at 11-straight points.

Jade Geif added a layup for Navy to make it a four point game but Becca Allison added three free throws and Tiffany Minor a layup as the Lady Monarchs defeated Navy 68-60.

First Half Notes

In a fast paced start, Navy jumped out to a 6-2 lead but a 6-0 run by the Lady Monarchs gave ODU its first lead at 8-6. The teams traded buckets without a stoppage until the 11-minute mark with the score tied at 17.

ODU took a 25-21 lead on a three-pointer by LaQuanda Younger but a jumper and a three-pointer from Audrey Bauer put Navy back on top 26-25.

The Lady Monarchs followed by scoring 10 of the next 14 points to take a 35-30 lead. Brandao added her fourth jumper of the first half to spark the rally.

ODU finished the first half on an 8-2 run to take a 39-30 halftime lead. Painter scored five of ODU's eight points.

The Lady Monarchs shot a blistering 53 percent in the first half led by eight points from Brandao and six apiece from Kelley, Painter and Oigbokie.

Six of Navy's 11 first half field goals came from beyond the arc as Bauer and Chloe Stapleton made a pair of three-pointers apiece.

Bauer led Navy with 17 points while Alix Membreno added 14 points.

Kelley also contributed 13 rebounds to go along with her game-high 22 points for her 17th double-double of the year. Allison contributed nine points Painter added eight points and five boards whith Odegua Oigboike scoring six.

Basketball | ODU beats Navy 68-60 in Women's NIT

NORFOLK - Shae Kelley was clearly Old Dominion's best player Thursday night, but had senior guard Michelle Brandao not played the game of her career, the Lady Monarchs would be done for the season.

Kelley scored 22 points, including 12 in a row during a crucial stretch in the second half, pulled down 13 rebounds and broke the 1,000-point career scoring mark to lead ODU past Navy 68-60 in the first round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament.

ODU (18-15) will play at Auburn at 7 p.m. Monday in the second round.

ODU was without point guard Galaisha Goodhope, sidelined with a sore knee. With Ashley Betz-White out for the season with a stress fracture, ODU was down to one point guard - Brandao.

Brandao started and ran ODU's offense to near perfection, scoring eight points and dishing out nine assists without a turnover in 37 minutes. She came in averaging 1.5 points and 1.7 assists per game.

A national team star in her native Portugal, Brandao's career at ODU has been pocked with misfortune. She was declared ineligible for a year and a half because the NCAA ruled that a club team she played for in Portugal had professional players.

After missing 44 games, she finally was eligible to play at midseason of last year, but in her eighth game, she blew out her knee. She returned to ODU's lineup in early December and has played sparingly.

Brandao played much of the game with a broad smile, clearly drinking in her moment in the limelight.

"I'm not going to lie, it feels good after all that has happened to me," she said.

"It's all about opportunity. I had my opportunity and I took it."

Navy (24-8), which had won three straight Patriot League titles prior to this season, rallied from a seven-point deficit early in the second half to take a 51-48 lead on a Jade Geif layup with 10:50 left.

However, Kelley then took over, scoring 12 consecutive points for ODU, including a layup and a free throw with 4:13 left that put the Lady Monarchs ahead 60-53.

The basketball gods did not smile upon Navy, which had half a dozen second-half shots rim out of the basket.

"It was a tough loss," Navy coach Stefanie Pemper said. "We just didn't get some bounces.

"I loved our effort, but I'm disappointed. I felt like we kind of let one get away."

Auburn is coached by Terri Williams-Flournoy, the sister of legendary Peninsula AAU coach Boo Williams, and a longtime friend of ODU coach Karen Barefoot. Williams-Flournoy and Barefoot are former high school basketball rivals.

"I was at Menchville and she was at Phoebus," Barefoot said. "I have a lot of respect for her and what she's done at Auburn.

"We know it's going to be a tough battle."

Shae Kelley Joins Elite Company

NORFOLK, Va. – Shae Kelley has scored 1,011 points over her first two seasons at Old Dominion, which puts her Elite Lady Monarch Company. She is the fifth player in school history to obtain 1,000 points in their first two seasons in a Lady Monarch's uniform. Anne Donovan, Inge Nissen, Nancy Lieberman and Clarisse Machanguana are the only four Lady Monarch players to ever obtain this feat.

Tournament History

The Postseason Women's National Invitation Tournament began in 1998 with 16 teams playing for a postseason crown. The event has undergone four expansions throughout which its mission has remained the same: To give deserving teams a quality opportunity to play exciting games for a postseason title.

Following the inaugural year, the field doubled to 32 teams and remained that way until 2006 when a renewed commitment was made to schools. The WNIT expanded to a 40-team field to give spots to teams that won their regular-season conference title but did not win their conference tournament and therefore were excluded from the NCAA Tournament.

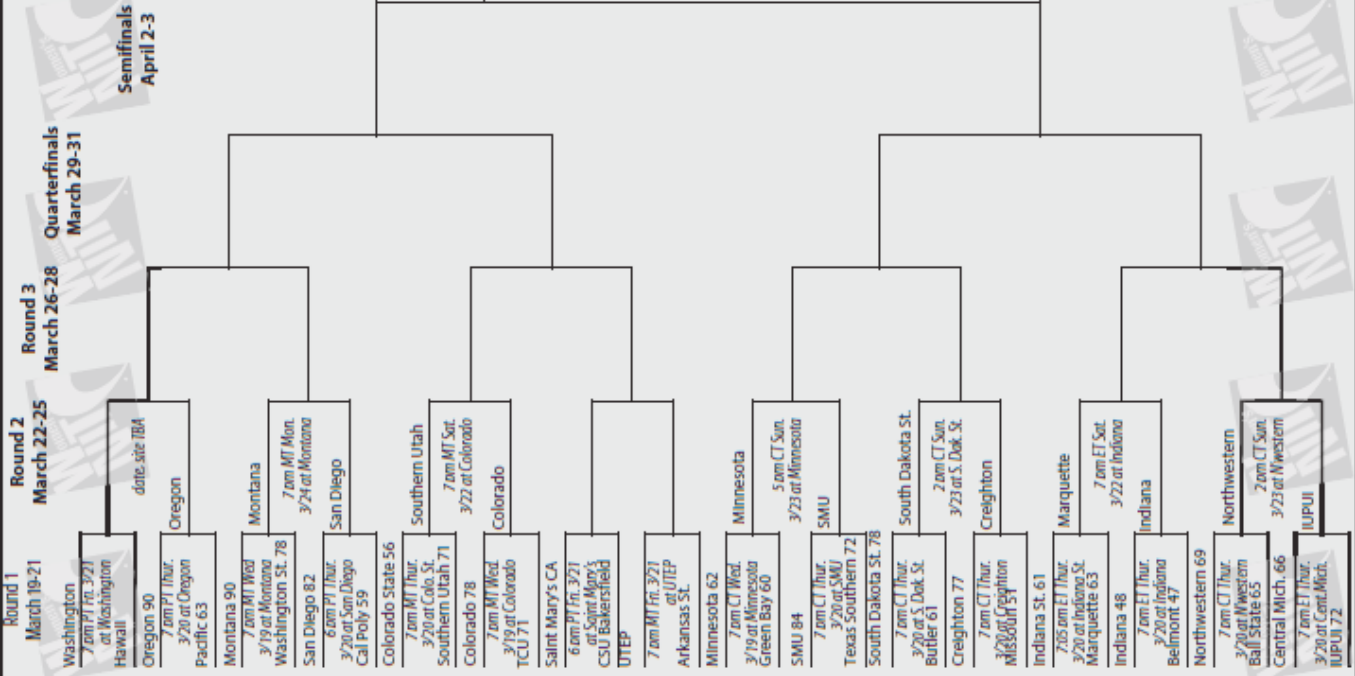

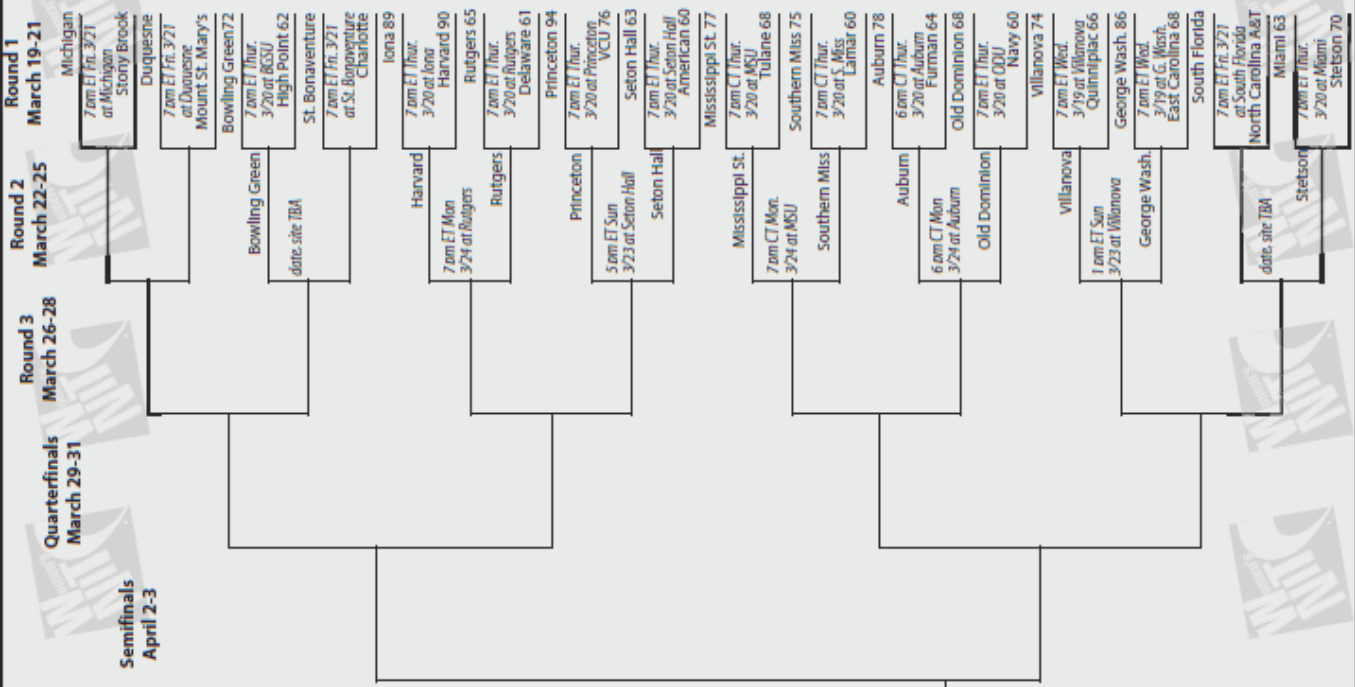

The WNIT furthered that commitment to conferences in 2007, when it expanded to 48 teams and awarded an automatic berth to each conference. The number of at-large berths remained at 17 until 2010, when the WNIT felt that the level of women's basketball warranted an expansion to the 64-team field.

The Postseason WNIT is the longest current running postseason event for women's college basketball, in addition to the NCAA Tournament.
