The 2004-05 Old Dominion Wrestling Team

STEVE MARTIN

FIRST SEASON IOWA '91

Winning is all that Old Dominion wrestling coach Steve Martin has ever known. From his days as a high school wrestler at Kempsville High School in Virginia Beach, as a three-time Virginia high school state champion, to his days at the University of Iowa where he was an all-American and Midlands Champion, and as the head coach at Great Bridge High School, all Steve Martin has ever known is winning.

But the foundation for Martin's winning resume was also built on his pedigree.

His father, the legendary Billy Martin, is the father of Virginia wrestling and won 22 state wrestling team titles in 23 years and coached dozens of state champions that went on to win and place at the NCAA championships.

Martin's brother David was a four-time Virginia high school state champion at Granby high school under his father and went on to wrestle at Indiana State. Billy Martin, Jr. was a three-time NCAA all-American at Oklahoma State, finishing second in 1974. Wayne Martin preceded Steve at Great Bridge after wrestling at Old Dominion, and has now taken over again at Great Bridge now that Steve is the coach at ODU.

The groundwork for a successful wrestling coach was set in motion even before Steve Martin stepped on the mat as a competitor.

As a coach, he saw success only matched by his father, leading Great Bridge to 13 state championships in 14 years. Each of those 13 years, Martin's Wildcats were nationally ranked.

Moving up to the college ranks, Martin still keeps the winning attitude that's built around hard work in the wrestling room, hard work on your own, and hard work in the classroom.

"We had this emphasis in college, where you broke somebody," Steve Martin told the Virginian-Pilot in 2001. "You won by 15 points, or you pinned them, and at the end of the match, they crawled off the mat mentally and physically destroyed and they never wanted to step on the mat again with you."

Dozens of Great Bridge wrestlers have gone on to wrestle Division I, including 2001 NCAA National Champion Carl Perry of the University of Illinois. Perry won three state titles under Martin at Great Bridge.

Martin coached 40 high school state champions, 98 state placewinners, 35 all-Americans (freestyle and folkstyle) and six high school national champions.

He was awarded the National Wrestling Coaches Association state and regional coach of the year in 1995 and 2000.

The Norfolk Sports Club named him the Bob Bates Award winner as the Outstanding Metropolitan Coach of the Year.

On the high school level, Martin has been active in Virginia USA Wrestling, coaching at the Junior Nationals in Fargo, N.D. and has coached with the Wrestling USA Magazine Dream Team Classic and the Dapper Dan Classic in Pennsylvania.

At Old Dominion, Martin will have more of a challenge and he readily accepts it.

Making the Monarchs program one of the top programs on the East Coast and in the nation is paramount.

"Virginia high school wrestling is making a name for itself on the national level. While we will be recruiting nationally, it will be goal of our staff to keep these Virginia kids at home in front of their family and friends," Martin said.

Martin's drive is to make Old Dominion a national powerhouse and the foundations are formed right now. The new wrestling room will be operational by 2006 and by then, Monarch wrestlers, under the new coaching regime, will be thriving.

"I want to thank the administration at Old Dominion for giving me this great opportunity," said Martin when he was named head coach in June of 2004. "It has been a personal goal of mine to coach at the Division I level and what makes this job even more special is that is in my home town and close to family, friends and supporters of wrestling."

His goal to become a coach was the first step, and with the administration supporting the program, becoming a winning program will be only a matter of time, Martin says.

"The school has made a nice commitment to the wrestling program," said Martin in an interview with Ron Good of Amateur Wrestling News in September of 2004. "Jim Jarrett, our athletic director, has plans to build a new 7500 square foot wrestling room as well as hiring the first ever full-time assistant coach (Lee Pritts)."

Martin graduated from the University of Iowa in 1991 and got his master's degree from George Washington University in 1996.

Steve and his wife Lori live in Chesapeake, Va. They have four children: Madison (8), Macy (6), Mckenna (5) and Max (1).

Martin enjoys the outdoors and spending time with his family. When he is not on the mat, you can find him at the beach or at the Martin's farm on Knott's Island, N.C.

This 1984 promotional flyer for ODU wrestling honored the career of Billy Martin.

Martin coached current Monarch Christian Staylor at Great Bridge HS. Staylor was ranked #1 in High School at 119 pounds.

Martin coached 2001 NCAA champion Carl Perry (Illinois) at Great Bridge High School.

WRESTLING AND THE MARTIN MEN

Since 1996, Coach Martin has coached 34 members of the Martin family team with 24 state wrestling titles. Among them, 2002 Martins' Carl Staylor won 100 individual state titles. His grandson Michael was won three, bringing the family total to 57.

Willy Martin, 63, 4th, coach leads 1991 to 21 state titles from 1990-2000. In 1970, he was the first coach to coach at the National Wrestling Hall of Fame. In 1980, he was the first to be inducted in the state of N.C.

Willy Martin, 36, 20, 3 has three state titles at Greenvale (1995-97). He was an NCAA runner-up (1976) and two-time Big Ten champion at Charlotte State. He was head coach at Old Dominion in 1988-97 and now works a school setting business.

Wayne Martin, 42, 10th, won a state title at Appomattox High in 1976 and coached Great Bridge High to state titles in 1987, 1990, 1999 and 2002. He now works as the director of athletics for Chesapeake public schools.

David Martin, 40, 19th, won a two-time state champion at Greenvale (1998-99) and 1999. A former National Safety Council champion at Indiana State. He coached Martin University from 1995 and also managed the Greenvale coaches.

This excerpt from the December 2, 2001, Virginia Pilot shows the deep-rooted Martin family legacy.

Martin was part of the 1990 Iowa team that captured the NCAA Championship.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LEE PRITTS

FIRST SEASON EASTERN MICHIGAN '98 FT. LAUDERDALE, FL

Upon coming to Old Dominion as the head assistant, Lee Pritts was asked by friends and colleagues why he left Missouri, where he was an assistant coach for six seasons. The answer was simple.

“Old Dominion is a gold-mine,” he said. That gold-mine and the potential for winning made Pritts and easy choice for long-time friend Steve Martin.

Pritts brings an immediate intensity to the Old Dominion wrestling program that meshes well with the current staff and its direction for the program.

As a competitor, Pritts was a three-time NCAA qualifier from 1996-98. After a stint at Garden City Community College where he was teammates with former Old Dominion wrestler Mark Strickland (1997-98), Pritts claimed All-American honors in 1996 at Eastern Michigan.

Unseeded coming into the 1996 tournament at Minneapolis, Pritts achieved All-American status.

Pritts won two Mid-America Conference championships and after transferring to Clarion for his senior season, won Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference and Eastern Wrestling League titles at 118 pounds.

A Fort Lauderdale, Fla., native, Pritts followed high school coach Brian Smith to Missouri. Pritts was a vital piece of Missouri’s rebuilding mission. The Tigers were perennially at the bottom of the Big 12 conference, but with Pritts, the Tigers earned their first victory over national powerhouse Oklahoma State in 2003-04.

Missouri had breakout seasons, winning the 2002 Virginia Duals National College Division.

He’s coached six NCAA All-American and two NCAA finalists as well as helped guide the Tigers to tournament titles at the Reno Tournament of Champions, Southern Scuffle, Mat Town USA tournament and a runner-up finish in the National Wrestling Coaches Association National Duals, which puts the top 16 teams in the nation against each other in a dual-tournament format.

Pritts and his wife Krista live in Norfolk, Va. Pritts enjoys the outdoors and spending time at the Martin’s farm in Knotts Island, N.C. When he’s not working with wrestling, you can find him at the beach either surfing or wakeboarding.

CORY ACE

FIRST SEASON EDINBORO '03 FRANKLIN, PA

Cory Ace joins the Old Dominion staff after a successful campaign as a wrestler and graduate-assistant at his alma mater, Edinboro.

With Ace as a grad-assistant, Edinboro went 7-0 in Eastern Wrestling League dual meets, and finished 10-3 overall. The squad was ranked in the Top 25 all year and tied for the EWL tournament title with West Virginia.

As a competitor, Ace was a 2002 All-American at 133 pounds and was ranked as high as seventh in the nation his junior and senior years. Ace wrestled 141 his freshman, sophomore and senior years and was a four-time NCAA qualifier.

At the 2002 NCAA Championships in Albany, N.Y., Ace came in unseeded and rebounded from a first-round loss to eventual third-place finisher Witt Durden of Oklahoma to win four straight matches in the consolations.

Ace was a Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference in 2002, and an Eastern Wrestling League champion in 2003. He helped the Fighting Scots Matt King (165) and Nate Yetzer (174) to All-American status and also aided in Deonte Penn’s EWL crown at 149 pounds in 2003-04.

“I’m excited to be a part of the new regime at Old Dominion.” Ace said. “I feel that we can be immediately competitive and I’m glad to be a part of a program that has winning in mind and the commitment from the coaching staff, the wrestlers and the administration.”

“In the short time I’ve been here, I’ve learned a lot from coach Steve Martin. I feel that as a coaching staff, we mesh well which is going to help the program.” Ace said.

Originally from Franklin, Pa., Ace was high school teammates with Penn State All-Americans Josh Moore and Scott Moore (who later placed third at the University of Virginia). While at Franklin H.S., Ace won the Pennsylvania state title at 135 pounds in 1998.

Ace is single and resides in Norfolk, Va. He enjoys golfing and fishing, both freshwater and saltwater.

Assistant Cory Ace was a 2002 All-American and is the fourth All-American on ODU staff.

JOHN TESTA

VOLUNTEER ASST. FIRST SEASON NEWARK, DE

John Testa, a 2003 graduate of Clarion University, joins the Monarchs as an assistant coach. Testa will be responsible for assisting the upper weights. A heavy-weight wrestler at Clarion, Testa ranks #3 on the all-time win list, compiling a 136-26 career record. He was also a three-time Eastern Wrestling League Champion (four-time qualifier) and four-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference champion. Testa was named an NCAA All-American his senior year.

ODU ALL-AMERICANS

2004-05 SEASON OUTLOOK

The Old Dominion wrestling team will look to use several key transfers and an impressive group of freshmen, as well as a new coaching staff of NCAA All-Americans, to rebound from last season's 7-12 record. Head Coach Steve Martin, who took over the Monarchs after Gray Simons retired after 17 years, along with new assistants Lee Pritts, Cory Ace and John Testa, have brought in a highly regarded group of wrestlers during the off-season who should make immediate contributions.

Redshirt sophomore Christian Staylor (Chesapeake, VA/Great Bridge) joins the Monarchs squad after two seasons at Arizona State. Staylor reunites with Coach Martin, who coached him at nearby Great Bridge High School. Staylor will start at the 125-pound weight class, with hopes of being an All-American. At the 133-pound weight class will be four-time Virginia AA State Champion, freshman B.J. Compton (Christiansburg, VA), who also looks to start off his college career by turning some heads.

Shanon Slack (Richmond, VA), a junior, has transferred in from Fresno State to wrestle at 141 and expects to achieve All-American status as well. Three other new faces could also do some damage: freshman Hunter Davenport (Chesapeake, VA/Great Bridge) will wrestle at 149 lbs, transfer Nick Pullano (Chesapeake, VA/Great Bridge) comes from Tennessee-Chattanooga to wrestle at 157 lbs and Heavyweight freshman Alec Eaton (Westminster, MD), the Maryland state runner-up.

Junior John Dolida (Bridgewater, NJ) will be the starter in the Heavyweight weight-class. Dolida battled through injuries last season to post a 5-11 overall record in the position at 197. Rob Valentine (Alexandria, VA/Mt Vernon), who posted a 2-10 record as a freshman, along with newcomer Andrew Jordan (Newark, DE/St. Mark's) should compete for starting time this season at 197.

The Monarchs will be built around three returning starters. Robby Gosnell (Warrenton, VA/Faquier) will start at 165, after wrestling at 174 last season, going 18-15 overall. John Adams (Chesapeake, VA/Deep Creek) is the team's only senior and will start at 174 this season after going 25-16 in the 165 weight class in 2003-04. Adam Wright (Dayton, VA/Turner Ashby) will start at 184 lbs, after going 30-9 last season and finishing third in the CAA tournament and being selected as the third alternate in the NCAA Tournament.

ODU will face a challenging schedule this season, competing in tournaments such as the ODU Invitational, the Missouri Open, Mat Town USA Invitational, the Midlands, Virginia Duals, the Rubbermaid Carolina Open, the Southern Scuffle and the Virginia State Intercollegiate Tournament. The Monarchs will play host to CAA powerhouse Hofstra, and face tough competition from NC State, UNC-Greensboro, VMI, George Mason and others.

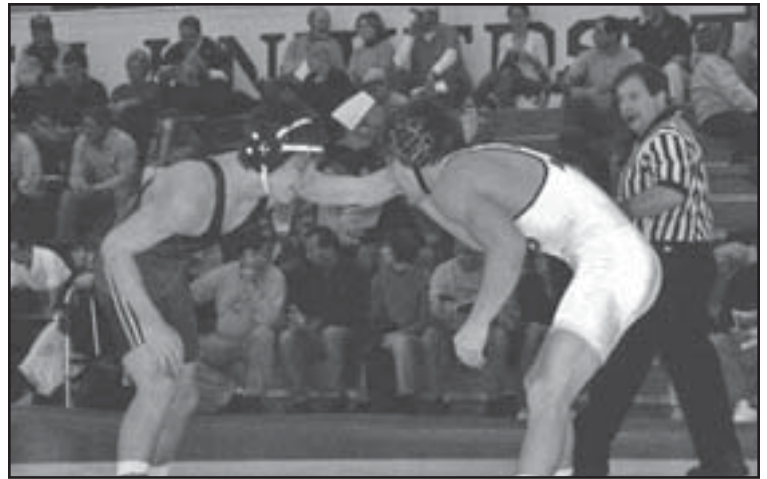

After last season's 7-12 overall record, 5-3 CAA record and 7th place finish in the CAA Championships, the Monarchs will look to be a threat in 2004-05, with a fully reloaded team and a new coaching staff of former NCAA All-Americans looking to return ODU to national prominence.

The Monarchs By Weight Class:

125: Christian Staylor will start at this weight class. Staylor went 26-14 and was selected as a NCAA Tournament wildcard for Arizona State last season. Selas Douglas is back-up wrestler.

133: B.J. Compton will be the starter. Compton, a freshman, had a stellar high school career, compiling a 178-12 overall record, with 100 pins. He was a four-time district champ, region champ and state champ.

141: Shanon Slack will start in this weight class. Slack, a transfer from Fresno State, went 7-12 a year ago, recording a pin and a major decision, wrestling in both the 133 and 141 weight classes. Slack was an All-American in high school, compiling a 105-17 career record. Look for redshirt freshman Donald Motley (Chesapeake, VA/Deep Creek) to be a key back-up.

Freshman B.J. Compton was a four-time Virginia High School State Champion at Christiansburg High School.

The Monarchs hosted the inaugural Blue-Silver intrasquad match in 2004.

149: Hunter Davenport will be the starter. Davenport was a three-time district, region and state champ under Coach Steve Martin at Great Bridge High School. Jacob Forestiere (Yorktown, VA/Tabb) will challenge for starting time this year.

157: Nick Pullano is the starter at 157. Pullano redshirted last season at Tennessee-Chattanooga, compiling an 18-8 record. He left Great Bridge High School with a 93-30 career record.

165: Robby Gosnell (Warrenton, VA) is expected to start in this weight class. Gosnell, a junior, compiled an 18-15 record last season, with a pin, tech fall and five major decisions to his credit.

174: Senior John Adams will be the starter at 174. Adams, in the 165-weight class last season, compiled a 25-16 record.

184: Junior Adam Wright will start at 184. A third alternate for the NCAA Tournament last year, Wright compiled a 30-9 record in 2003-04, with seven pins, four tech falls and six major decisions.

197: Sophomore Rob Valentine and freshman Andrew Jordan will compete for starting time this season.

HWT: Junior John Dolida is the starter at Heavyweight this year. Alex Eaton will be a back-up at Heavyweight this season. Eaton placed second in the county, regionals and in the state last season at Meade High School.

SEASON REVIEW

The Old Dominion wrestling team finished the 2003-04 season with a 7-12 overall record and a 5-3 Colonial Athletic Association mark, while finishing seventh in the CAA Championships with 29 points.

Derrell Lorthridge's trip to the NCAA Tournament capped the year for the Monarchs. The senior heavyweight led the team with an overall record of 37-11, including an impressive 16-3 in duals action, ranking second nationally in wins. After taking out Ramel Meekins of Rutgers by a 5-3 decision in the first round, Lorthridge dropped a 3-0 decision to #3 seed Matt Feast from the University of Pennsylvania in round two action. In the second round of consolations, he dropped a 5-3 decision to Russ Davies of Cleveland State. Lorthridge's trip to the NCAA Tournament took a Monarch back after a year's absence. Sophomore Adam Wright was the third alternate in the 184 weight class.

The awards rolled in for the Monarchs during the season. Adam Wright won CAA Co-Performer of the Week honors for the week of February 10, while Jesse Pearce earned CAA Co-Performer of the Week honors two weeks later.

The Monarchs started the season by dominating their home event, the Old Dominion Invitational, placing in every class and winning eight of the ten weight classes. From there, ODU placed four wrestlers in the Rubbermaid/Carolina Open, hosted by the University of North Carolina, with Jesse Pearce taking 2nd in the 157 weight class and Adam Wright taking 3rd in the 184 class. The Monarchs also placed in the Beast of the East Tournament, with Wright taking 2nd at 184 and Derrell Lorthridge taking 3rd in Heavyweight. At the Virginia State Intercollegiate Meet, the Monarchs placed in six classes, with Wright and Lorthridge both taking 1st.

The Monarchs started their dual season 1-4, after dropping duals to three ranked teams: #22 Edinboro (6-42), #19 Purdue (7-37) and #23 Rider (6-39). After scoring key conference wins against Sacred Heart (23-20) and Binghamton (32-18), the Monarchs improved to 3-6 overall and 2-3 in the CAA. After a five-dual non-conference losing streak dropped ODU's overall record to 3-11, the Monarchs came on strong at the end, winning three straight duals to close out their regular season, including dominating efforts over James Madison (42-3) and Delaware State (57-0).

In the CAA Tournament, the Monarchs finished 7th after scoring 29 points. Lorthridge qualified for the NCAA Tournament after finishing second in the Heavyweight class, losing only to the #1 wrestler in the CAA, Sacred Heart's Payam Zarrinpour, dropping a 4-2 overtime decision. Lorthridge took out Carmelo Marrero of Rider 3-2 in the first round and Campbell's Lantz Nixon 8-3 in the second round. Adam Wright was selected as a third alternate for the NCAA Tournament after placing third in the 184 weight class in the tournament.

At season end, the Old Dominion University athletic department celebrated the retirement of Gray Simons. Simons, a two-time Olympian and member of seven Halls of Fame, coached at ODU for 17 seasons compiling a 131-106-2 record, and 36 years overall for a 324-194-5 mark. In the 17 years at ODU, Simons coached 28 wrestlers who qualified for nationals, and five All-Americans. In 1994, the Monarchs captured the CAA Championship and Simons was named CAA Coach of the Year.

BUDDY LEE, ODU '82 & 1992 OLYMPIAN

One of Old Dominion's finest wrestling alums is Anthony "Buddy" Lee. For years, he has wowed audiences around the world with his acrobatic jump rope skills and techniques. Buddy currently has his own line of High performance jump ropes and training programs that are used by Olympians across all sports. His patented jump ropes are licensed and are the official ropes of The United States Olympic Team.

Buddy came to Old Dominion from Highland Springs High School in Richmond, Va. A high school known for its basketball and football state championship teams. He started wrestling as a 9th grader and won Highland Springs' first Virginia AAA State championship at 126 pounds in 1977 and was the State Runner up at 119 lb. in 1976.

He came to Old Dominion with only one high school state title and a record of 90 -5 1 and as of 2004, is one of only three high school state champions from Highland Springs.

Buddy was a two-time NCAA All-American at ODU, placing fourth in 1980 and seventh in 1982. After graduating from ODU with a degree in secondary education, he went on to serve in the U.S. Marines and became a 10-time world medalist, a three-time National Greco Roman Champion, and was voted most outstanding wrestler at the National Championships and was twice named U.S. Marine Corps Athlete of the Year.

Buddy is the first of hopefully many more Olympic wrestling hopefuls that have stepped on the mat at Old Dominion University. He placed sixth in the 1992 Barcelona Games in Greco-Roman.

He is the author of Jump Rope Training published by Human Kinetics, a national motivational speaker, inventor of Hyperformance jump rope with a patented bearing system, and a trainer to Olympic Athletes, all while living an exemplary lifestyle. Pictured above, you will see Buddy carrying the Olympic Torch en route to the 1996 Atlanta Games.

In 2004, Buddy Lee Jump Ropes were recognized as the best jump rope, period, by "Men's Health" and Men's Fitness magazine and appeared on CNN Headline news, NBC, CBS, Business Week, GQ, Jet, New York Times, Los Angeles Times and will appear in Vogue. Buddy compiled an impressive 122-13-2 record at Old Dominion, was voted male athlete of the year three times; most valuable wrestler four times and was inducted into the ODU Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

"Wrestling built my character, taught me the self discipline, commitment, confidence, persistence, and courage to fight to the end to live my dreams. My greatest lessons did not come from winning but from what I learned in the struggle for athletic excellence. I learned about life and about myself. Everyday I call on these mental skills to help me in my personal life, in business and to continue to stay focused to live my dream to motivate, educate and encourage others to become fit for life," said Lee.

"Wrestling helped me to discover, mold and develop my inner self to become a champion in life. As a result my education and sports background has allowed me to make the right choices in life."

The Colonial Athletic Association celebrates its 20th Anniversary in 2004-05, proud of its past and excited about the future.

Boasting a roster of 10 (soon to be 12) well-respected academic institutions, the CAA has established itself as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences. On the playing field, the league has produced 16 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 11 national coaches of the year, 11 national players of the year and 12 Honda Award winners. The CAA has consistently ranked among the top 15 in the Sears Directors Cup standings and has been the nation's top-ranked Division I non-football conference in recent years. Even more impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 16 NCAA post-graduate scholars. Last year, the CAA had eight CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, including five who were selected to the first team. Over 1,200 CAA student-athletes posted at least a 3.2 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport and received the CAA Commissioner's Academic Award in 2003-04. With a geographic footprint that currently stretches from the shadow of the Statue of Liberty to the beaches of North Carolina, the landscape of the conference includes four of the nation's top 25 media markets - New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Washington, D.C. (8) and Baltimore (24). That reach will expand even wider in 2006 with the addition of Georgia State University in Atlanta and Northeastern University in Boston, giving the CAA a presence in five of the nation's nine largest metropolitan areas. The CAA conducts championships in 21 sports. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and wrestling. Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball. In men's basketball, the CAA has earned a reputation as a "giant killer" in the NCAA Tournament. Since 1981, CAA schools have posted 12 wins over higher-seeded teams. Last year, seven of the league's 10 teams were among the top 140 in the RPI and four were ranked in the top 100. In women's basketball, the CAA ranked ninth among the nation's 31 conferences in 2003-04. Perennial power Old Dominion has captured three national championships (1979, 1980, 1985) and reached the title game again in 1997. The conference has also excelled in many other sports. CAA squads have won 10 field hockey national titles since the championship began in 1981, which is not only more than any other conference but represents nearly half of all titles won. In baseball, at least two CAA teams have earned NCAA Tournament berths for seven consecutive seasons. The CAA is annually ranked among the nation's top 10 conferences in men's and women's soccer, and has traditionally sent multiple teams to the NCAA Tournament. The conference finished the 2003-04 campaign with teams ranked among the top 25 nationally in cross country, field hockey, men's soccer, wrestling, softball, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's lacrosse. CAA member institutions are also committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Among the programs already established are an undergraduate research conference, coordination of study abroad programs and granting visiting academic status to student-athletes traveling to an away contest so that they have access to libraries, academic resource centers and computer labs. In 2002, two faculty members from CAA institutions were awarded academia's most coveted distinction - the Nobel Prize. John B. Fenn, a research professor in the Department of Chemistry at Virginia Commonwealth University, received the Nobel Prize for chemistry, and Vernon Smith, a professor of economics and law at George Mason University, shared the Nobel Prize in economic sciences. Under the direction of Commissioner Thomas E. Yeager, who has guided the CAA since its inception, the league currently includes 10 members and will expand to 12 in 2006. Core members George Mason University, James Madison University, the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, Old Dominion University, Virginia Commonwealth University and the College of William & Mary were joined by the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University and Towson University in 2001. Georgia State University and Northeastern University will become members of the conference in July, 2006. The CAA traces its roots back to 1983 when three of its current members - George Mason, James Madison, and William and Mary - were aligned with East Carolina University, the United States Naval Academy and the University of Richmond as a basketball league (ECAC South). During the next two years, the league added 11 sports, acquired two new members (UNC Wilmington and American University) and decided to form a new association. The transformation from ECAC South to CAA took place on June 6, 1985. By the fall of 1986, the league gained automatic bids to NCAA Championships in men's basketball, soccer, baseball and women's basketball and formed an officials' bureau. Old Dominion became a member of the CAA in 1991-92 and Virginia Commonwealth University joined the conference prior to the 1995-96 season. From all-star athletes to Nobel prize winning faculty, the CAA takes great pride in producing performers who stand out both on the playing field and in the classroom.

ODU ADMINISTRATION

DR. ROSEANN RUNTE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Roseann Runte became the seventh president of Old Dominion University in the summer of 2001. Runte, who has 21 years of experience as a professor and academic administrator, became only the third woman to head a four-year college or university in Virginia. Runte previously served as president of Victoria University in Toronto, principal of Glendon College (York University), president of l'Université Sainte-Anne in Nova Scotia and assistant dean of arts and science at Dalhousie University. She is an associate to the Council of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, a board member of the National Bank of Canada and a member of the executive committee of the Club of Rome. Runte has served as president of the Canadian Commission for UNESCO for two terms, as president of the Humanities Federation of Canada, as a member of the advisory board of the National Library, as founding president of ACFAS-Toronto, as a board member for the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia and of the board of Associated Medical Services, as chair of the board of the Foundation for International Training, and as vice chair of the board of the Gardiner Museum of Ceramic Art. The author of five volumes of creative writing, she has edited nine books and has written more than 100 articles and book chapters on topics ranging from literature and education to economic and cultural development. Runte has a Ph.D. in French from the University of Kansas and has received honorary degrees from Acadia University, Memorial University and the universities of Timisoara and Arad in Romania. She received the prix François Coppée from the Académie française as well as the Palmes Académiques and the Order of Merit from the French government, the Order of Canada, the Queen Elizabeth Jubilee medal, and is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada and of the World Academy of Arts and Sciences.

DR. JIM JARRETT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

When Jim Jarrett arrived on the campus of Old Dominion University in the fall of 1967 as a Health and Physical Education professor, he had little idea that his tenure would be counted in decades. During that time span, he has led the program from a well respected NCAA Division II member to a nationally respected Division I power that has captured 25 national championships.

Jarrett began his 34th year as athletic director in 2004, taking over the reigns in 1970 when Bud Metheny stepped down from that position. As one of the youngest athletic directors in the nation at that time, Jarrett quickly began to make a name for himself and ODU. He committed early on to a philosophy of "selective excellence," whereby the department "selected" its competitive sports and committed itself financially, academically and competitively to the sports it felt the University could best excel.

In 1974, Jarrett became the first athletic director in the state of Virginia to award grant-in-aids to women student-athletes. It was a bold move at the time for a young athletic director and equally young University, but one that paid great dividends. Just five years later, in 1979, the Lady Monarchs won the first of three national championships in women's basketball, and led the nation in attendance.

Under his leadership, the department's athletic venues have tripled and are considered state of the art facilities. They include the construction of the 2,500-seat Bud Metheny Baseball Complex in 1983, the Sailing Center in 1981, the Outdoor Tennis Complex which has been expanded to 15 lighted courts and a championship court with seating for 1,000-plus, the 4,000-seat ODU Soccer Stadium in 1990, renovations to Foreman Field, which included Astro-Turf and new locker room facilities, and the planning and construction of the 8,500 seat Constant Convocation Center.

For all his efforts, Jarrett's has been honored many times by national and local groups. Most recently, Jarrett was named the 2003 Southeast Regional Athletic Director of the Year by NACDA. Other awards he has received include the Collegiate Director's Award from the Women's Basketball Coaches Committee. He is a past president of the Colonial Athletic Association and the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame.

An avid golfer and tennis player, Jarrett and his wife Sugie reside in Norfolk.

ATHLETIC

OLD DOMINION UNIVERSITY prides itself on being able to offer the student-athlete the best possible facilities to achieve maximum potential on the field.

The Intercollegiate Athletics Building, opened in houses both strength training and athletic training facilities which are always at the full disposal of the student-athlete.

The athletic training room ranks as one of the top facilities in the nation, providing the best in modern rehabilitation equipment for athletic injuries. The seven-foot deep running pool, located in the hydrotherapy room, along with three whirlpools and one jacuzzi, provides Old Dominion athletes the opportunity to rehabilitate through exercise in water. The room also includes nine training tables, a Kinkom rehabilitation machine, and a traction table. The athletic training room is under the supervision of Head Athletic Trainer Marty Bradley, M.S., A.T., C., and his two full-time assistants, along with a staff of graduate assistants and student assistants.

Adjacent to the athletic training room is the strength training room, built specifically for student-athlete use. The room includes the most up-to-date nautilus and free weight equipment, all under the supervision of Strength and Conditioning Coach Andy Zucker.

The Intercollegiate Athletics Building also houses the administrative staff including the athletic director, the associate and assistant athletic directors, the offices of sports information, athletic development and promotions, and the ticket office. The Athletic Support Office and Buildings and Grounds offices are also located in the Intercollegiate Athletics Building.

The Intercollegiate Athletics Building is located in the middle of the athletic quadrant of the campus that includes the 4,000 seat Old Dominion Soccer Stadium, the 2,500 seat Bud Metheny Baseball Complex, the 15-court Tennis Complex that includes a 1,000 seat championship court, and the Health & Physical Education Building.

The H&PE Building contains the 5,500 seat Old Dominion Fieldhouse, which serves as the “home floor” for the Monarch wrestlers for most of their home duals and tournaments. The J.C. “Scrap” Chandler Pool is also located in the H&PE Building, with seating for approximately 1,500 people.

Foreman Field, located behind Rollins Hall on the northern edge of the campus, is home to the field hockey and lacrosse teams, as well as being the site for much of Old Dominion’s intramural sports program.

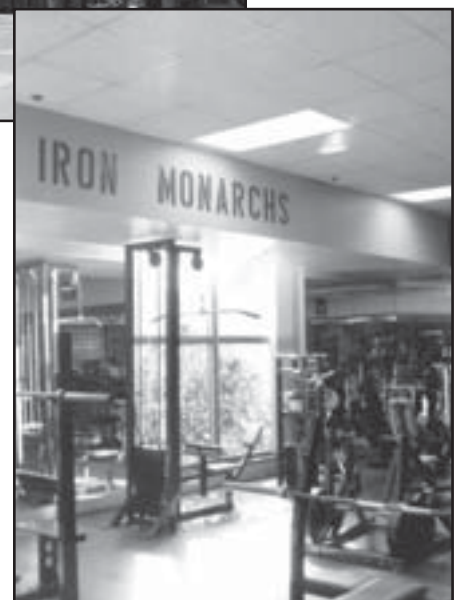

The Old Dominion Sailing Center, located on the Elizabeth River on the western side of the campus serves as home to the Monarch sailing program.

OLD DOMINION

Old Dominion University opened its doors 74 years ago in an abandoned public school building with 206 students as the Norfolk Division of the College of William and Mary, and became an independent institution in 1962. Today, the University enrolls more than 20,000 students, including approximately 6,500 graduate students. Its 188-acre Norfolk campus is the primary hub of activity, along with four additional higher education centers (Virginia Beach Center, Peninsula Center, Tri-Cities Center and Northern Virginia Center).

Old Dominion is a versatile university, committed to its students, their education, personal development and overall success. The University offers 66 bachelor's degrees, 67 master's degrees, two education specialist degrees and 24 doctoral degrees, and consists of six colleges: Arts and Letters, Business and Public Administration, Education, Engineering and Technology, Health Sciences, and Sciences.

Students who live on campus may choose residence hall or apartment-style living. The attractive Webb University Center provides a food court, video arcade, lounge areas and other shops to serve the student body.

Old Dominion is one of Virginia's leading Ph.D. research institutions. The total value of its research activity is about $50 million annually. The University contributes approximately $600 million a year to the Hampton Roads economy and provides the community with a variety of programs and services, including the Bank of America Entrepreneurial Center, Technology Applications Center and Military Career Transition Program. A leader in space-related research, Old Dominion ranks first in the state in funding from NASA for research projects. The University operates one of the largest wind tunnels in the world at NASA's Langley Research Center, and its Oceanography, Nuclear Physics, and Modeling and Simulation programs are among the best in the nation.

The University Village, a 75-acre development along the east side of Hampton Boulevard, is yet another economic spark for the region. The 8,600-seat Ted Constant Convocation Center, which opened in fall 2002, is the centerpiece of the project. The Village also currently includes 270 modern apartment units for students. Plans call for the addition of a hotel and parking garage, a variety of restaurants, a shopping center with a large grocery store and research facilities.

In the classroom, Old Dominion students continue to earn high marks. Former student-athlete and 1996 graduate Samantha Salvia became the University's first Rhodes Scholar.

An international leader in delivering interactive instructional television, the University operates TELETECHNET, a distance learning system that offers students an opportunity to earn one of 17 baccalaureate or eight master's degrees without leaving their area of residence. Since its inception in 1992, TELETECHNET has exceeded growth projections and is the largest televised, interactive distance learning program of its kind in the United States.

Old Dominion is also well known for its international focus in both its curricula and student population. More than 1,100 international students from 100 countries are enrolled at the University.

The University also contributes to the cultural life of Hampton Roads by presenting music and dance concerts, art exhibits, and annual literary and film and video festivals. In addition, the President's Lecture Series brings a variety of nationally known speakers to campus each year.

The University is located about 200 miles south of Washington, D.C., and is but a short drive to Virginia Beach and the Outer Banks of North Carolina.

WHY MONARCHS?

Many people have wondered how the Old Dominion University athletic teams came to be officially known as the Monarchs.

For many years, the athletic teams of the Norfolk Division of the College of William & Mary (as Old Dominion was formerly called) were known as the Braves. This was a derivation of the William & Mary nickname of Indians. As Old Dominion achieved its own four-year status and saw its enrollment surpass that of its Williamsburg neighbor, it was no longer suitable or acceptable to have its teams called the Braves.

The name Monarchs evokes much of the early history of the Commonwealth of Virginia and of Old Dominion's mother institution, the College of William and Mary. The nickname "Old Dominion" was first coined to the Virginia colony by King Charles II after Virginia's loyalty to the crown during the English Civil War. Furthermore, William III and Mary II, whose patronage helped found the College of William and Mary in Virginia in 1693, ruled England at the invitation of Parliament as "joint monarchs."

The Monarch used by Old Dominion has a royal crown on a lion's head, representing an historic past and a strong future. The school's current family of athletic logos were adopted in April of 2002.
